Business Proposal

By Peter McKenzie and Robert Leaman Sanders

People of all ages in our 21st Century deserve caring messages that contribute to the "good". The iconic song by Bob Dylan, "THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGIN', by way of Robert Sanders' adaptation is the timely release that will be more than inspirational to folks everywhere. Our adaptation, the recording and the distribution thereof, is designed to be a success on many levels. . . principally, in promoting hope. For the changes that are in the air currently are in a noticeable dire balance. Surly, influencing for the side of good is needed ! Our song adaptation will touch the hearts and souls of many. And this is good –

SONY ATV / MUSIC PUBLISHING has delivered to Robert Leaman Sanders a written contract containing fair business agreements. In view of the fact that SONY has sold Bob Dylan's music catalog to Vivendi's Universal Music Group, we are now dealing with Vivendi's "UNIVERSAL"

We Make The Right Moves !!!

SONY'S publishing contract giving Sanders the legal right to record & release the subject song goes along with the BOB DYLAN music Catalog sale to UNIVERSAL. However . . . the subject publishing contract is based on the subject song as copyrighted. Ours is an adaptation.

Peter McKenzie and Robert Sanders request a new and different publishing contract that will include legal written approval for the adaptation of the subject song to be recorded & released.

Moreover, standard worldwide distribution financial arrangements are Integral parts of our proposals that are in place to benefit all involved.
